Prill is in my Miſtris face, ij.

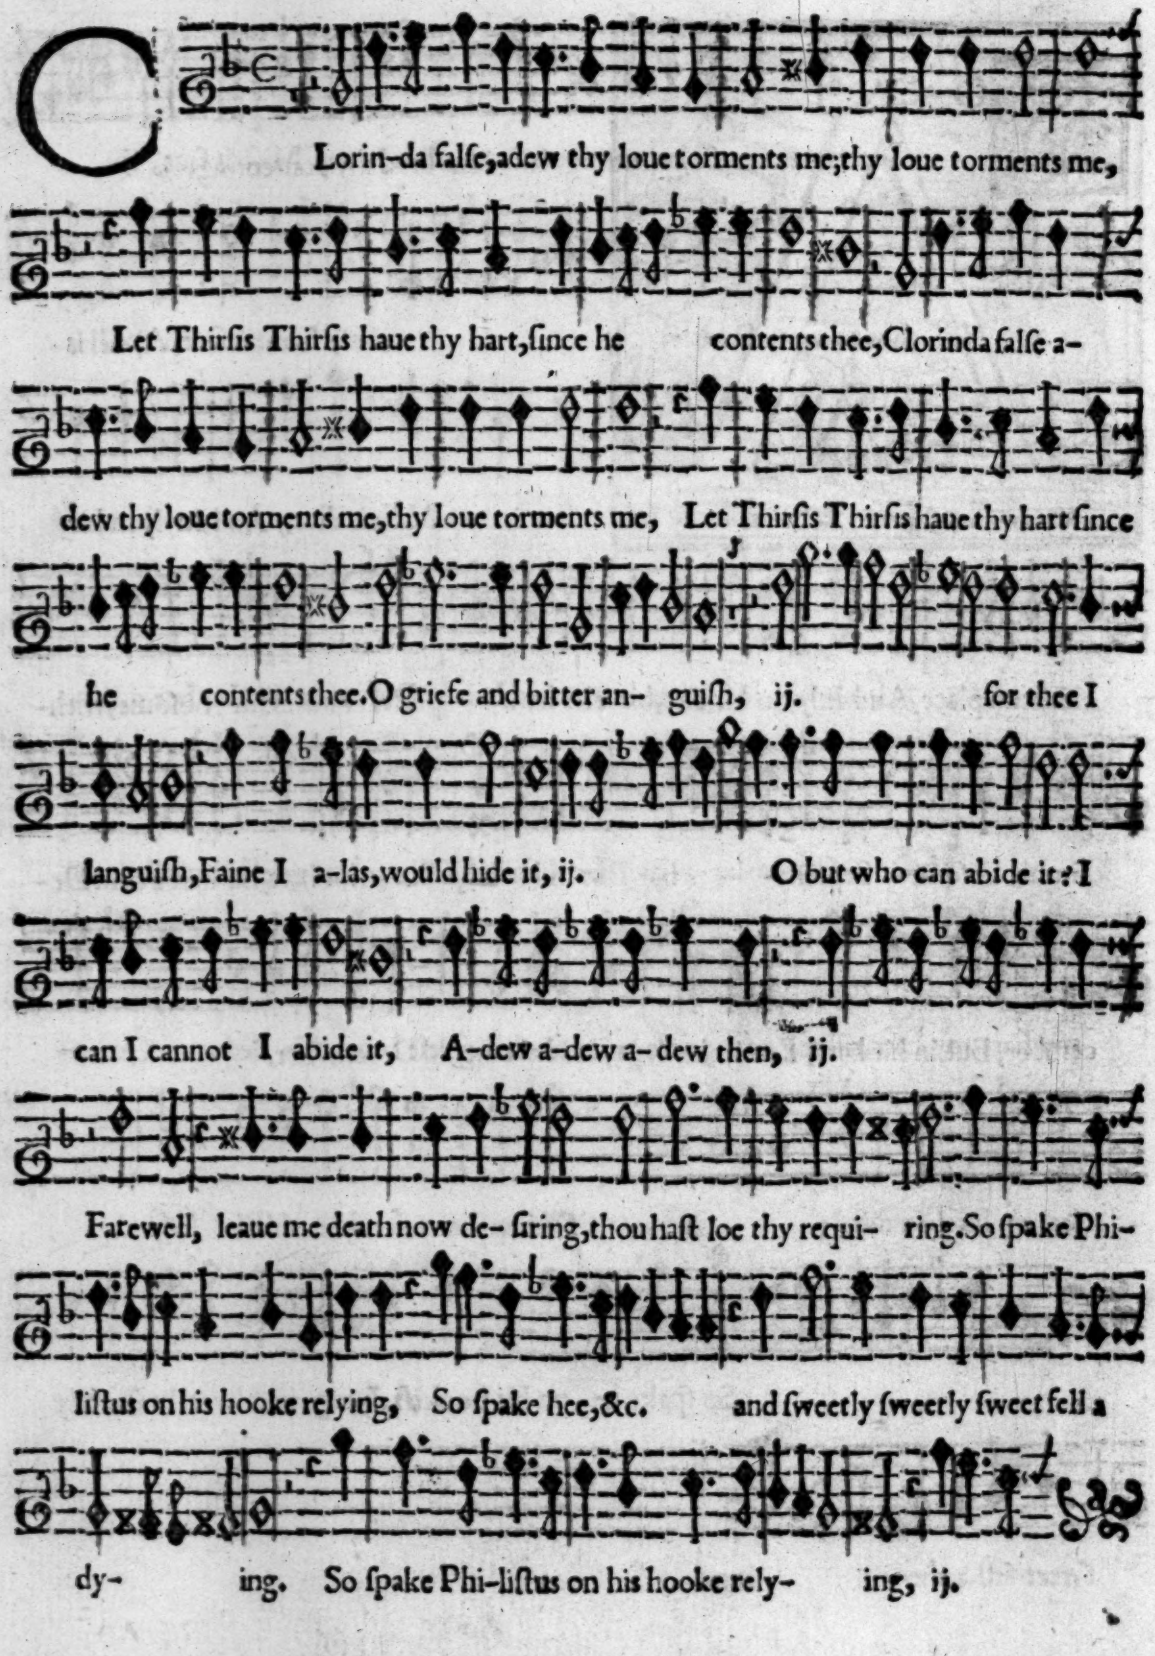
my Miſtris face, Aprill is in my Miſtris face, And Iu-ly in hir eies hath place, And Iuly in hir eies, hir eies hath place. With in hir boſome, within hir boſome is Septem- ber, But in hir hart, But in hir hart, hir hart a cold December, But in hir hart, But in hir hart, hir hart a cold Decem-ber.



Clorin-da falſe, adew thy loue torments me; thy loue torments me, Let Thirſis Thirſis haue thy hart, ſince he contents thee, Clorinda falſe a-dew thy loue torments me, thy loue torments me, Let Thirſis Thirſis haue thy hart ſince he contents thee. O griefe and bitter an- guiſh, ij. for thee I languiſh, Faine I a-las, would hide it, ij. O but who can abide it? I can I cannot I abide it, A-dew a-dew a- dew then, ij.
Farewell, leaue me death now de- ſiring, thou haſt loe thy requi- ring. So ſpake Phi-liſtus on his hooke relying, So ſpake hee, &c. and ſweetly ſweetly ſweet fell a dy- ing. So ſpake Phi-liſtus on his hooke rely- ing, ij.

Since my teares & lamenting, false loue bred thy contenting, ij.
still thus to weep for euer, :|: these fountaines shall perseuer, shall perse- uer. Till my hart griefe brim filled, till my hart, my hart, till my hart griefe brim fil- led, griefe brim fil- led. Out a-las a- las bee distilled. Out a-las a-las be distilled. Till my hart grief brim filled. till my hart, my hart, till my hart griefe brim fil- led, griefe brim fil- led. Out alas, a- las bee distil- led. Out a-las a-las bee distil- led.
So spake he on his hooke relying and sweetly sweetly sweet fell a die- ing.

Hy ſit I heere (a-las) complayning, why ſit, why ſit I heere (a-las) complayning, ſit I heere complay- ning! with ſobs and gronings, ij. ij. my diſday- ning, O this con-tenteth, whom griefe tormenteth. Ah ceaſe this wee- ping, this weeping, foole a-las, foole a-las, ſhee does but this to proue, to proue thee: away, a-way, a-way, a-way, a-way falſe comfort, no thou canſt not mooue mee:

thou canſt, thou canſt not moue me, mooue me, thou canſt, thou canſt not moue mee,

You that ſaw to much mine eyes, ſhall deerely buy it, you that ſaw to much, to much mine eies, ſhal deere-ly buy it, that made my hart, my hart beleeue, I dyd eſpie it. Hence falſe comfort in vaine thou doſt eaſe mee, comfort in vaine thou ſeekſt to eaſe mee; A-way I ſay then, a-way I ſay thou canſt not pleaſe mee. away I ſay then, O thou canſt not, thou canſt not pleaſe, no thou canſt not pleaſe mee, thou canſt not pleaſe, not pleaſe mee, thou canſt not pleaſe mee, A- way I ſay, ij. a-way I ſay thou canſt not pleaſe mee.

Elp I fall, I fall, Ladie, my hope loe doth betraie mee, my hope loe doth beetray mee, O help a-las I fall, I fall, but you vouchſafe to ſlay mee, Help I fall, I fall, I fall, my hope loe doth beetray mee, O help I fall Ladie I fall but you voutſafe to ſlay mee, See a Nymph vnkinde and cruell, ij.

and cru- ell, vnkinde & cruell, vnkinde, vnkind & cru- ell, to ſcorn hir one-ly Iu-ell. See a Nymph vnkinde & cruell, ij. and cru- ell, vnkinde and cruell, vnkinde, vnkind & cru- ell, to ſcorn hir one-ly Iu-ell.

A-dy, La-dy why grieue you ſtill mee, La-dy O no you loue mee, O no you loue you loue mee, If this be loue to kill me. O ſtrange tormenting, ſtrange tormenting, breake, ah breake alas hart alas, ah breake, break hart alas hir hart contenting, And you that now doe diſdaine me, & you that now diſdain me, that now doe diſdaine me, Say then that griefe hath ſlaine me, ij. Say then that griefe hath ſlaine mee, And you that now doe diſdaine me, you that now that now diſdain me, that now do diſ-daine mee, then ſay that griefe hath ſlaine mee, ij. then ſay that griefe hath ſlaine mee.

Ow is the gentle ſeaſon freſhly flowring, to ſing & play & daunce while May endu- reth, while May en-du- reth, while May en-du- reth, to ſing & play and daunce while May endureth, while May en-du- reth, and wooe and wed (toe) ij. and wooe & wed (toe) ij. and wooe and wed, and woe & wed (toe) and wooe & wed that ſweet delight procu-reth.

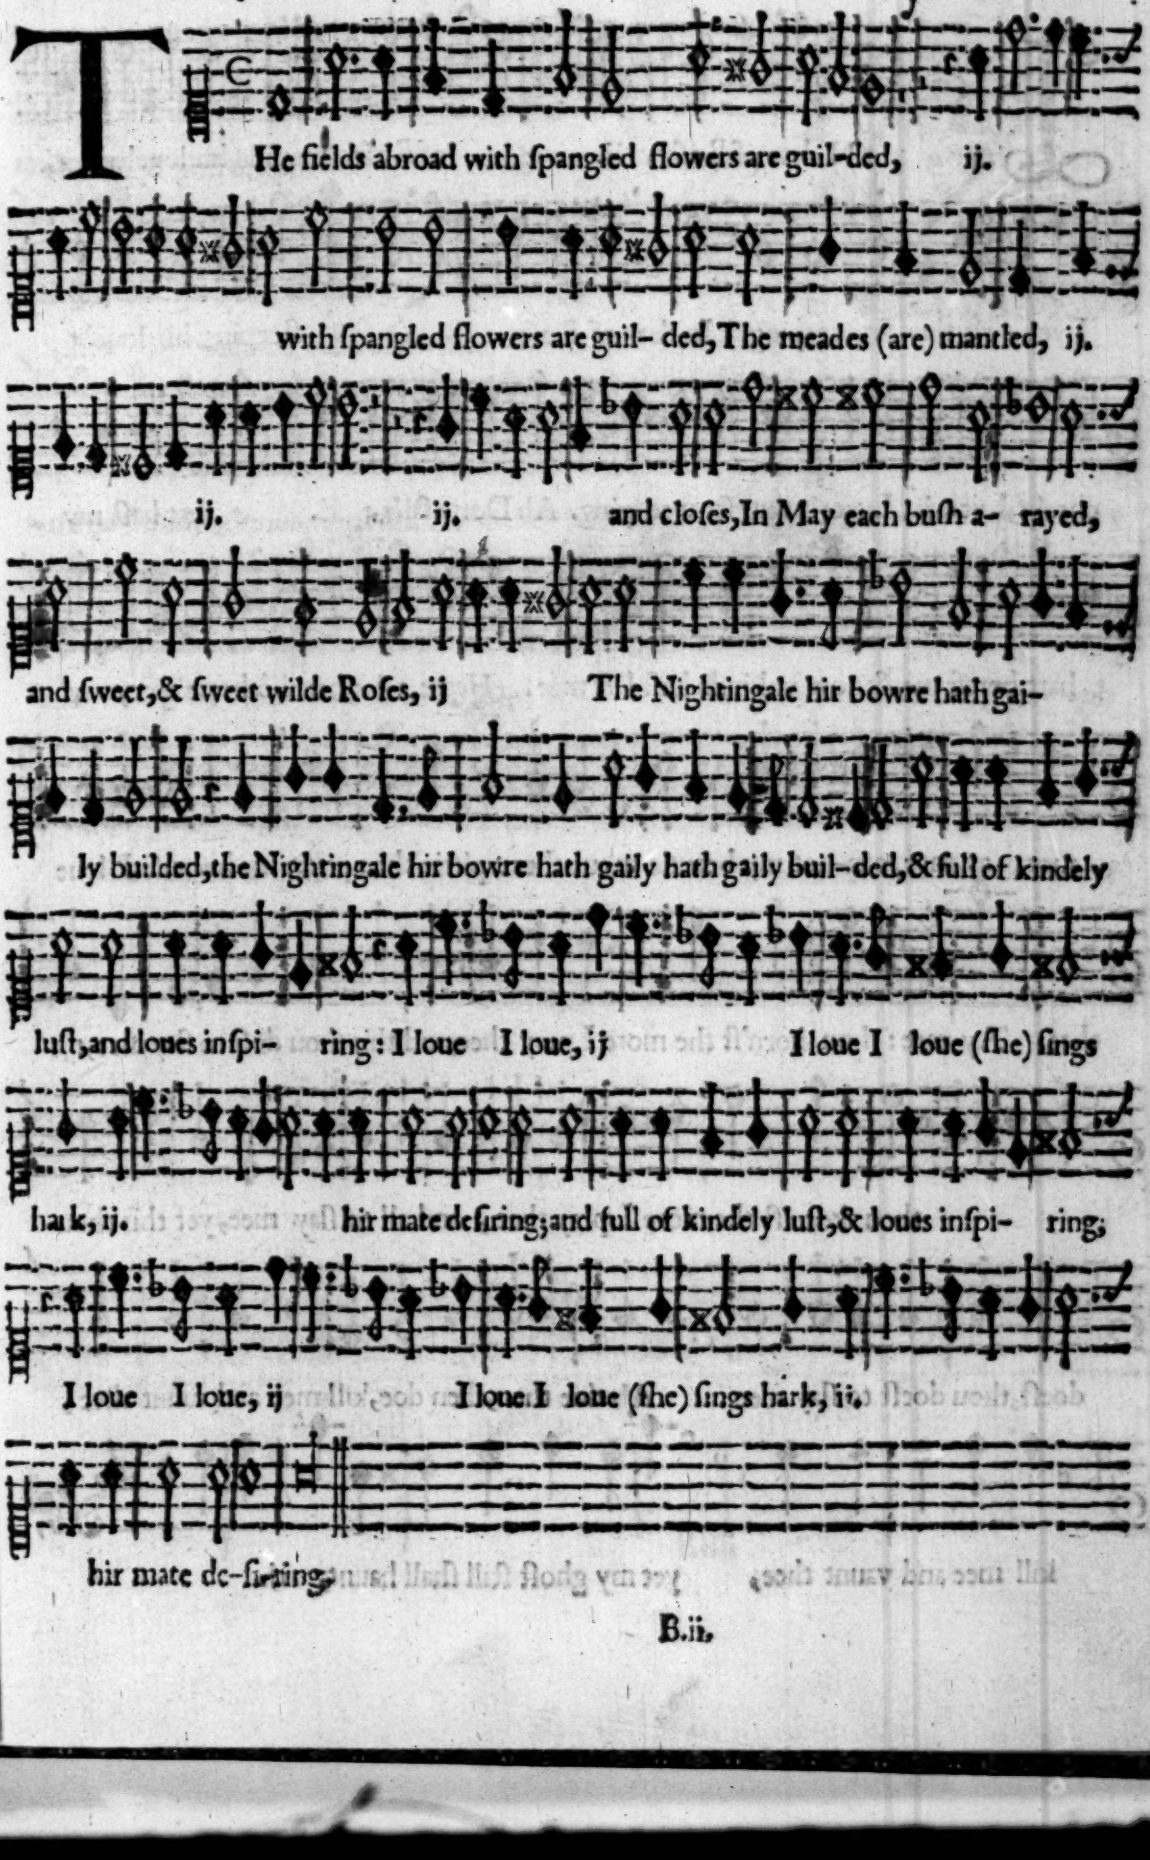
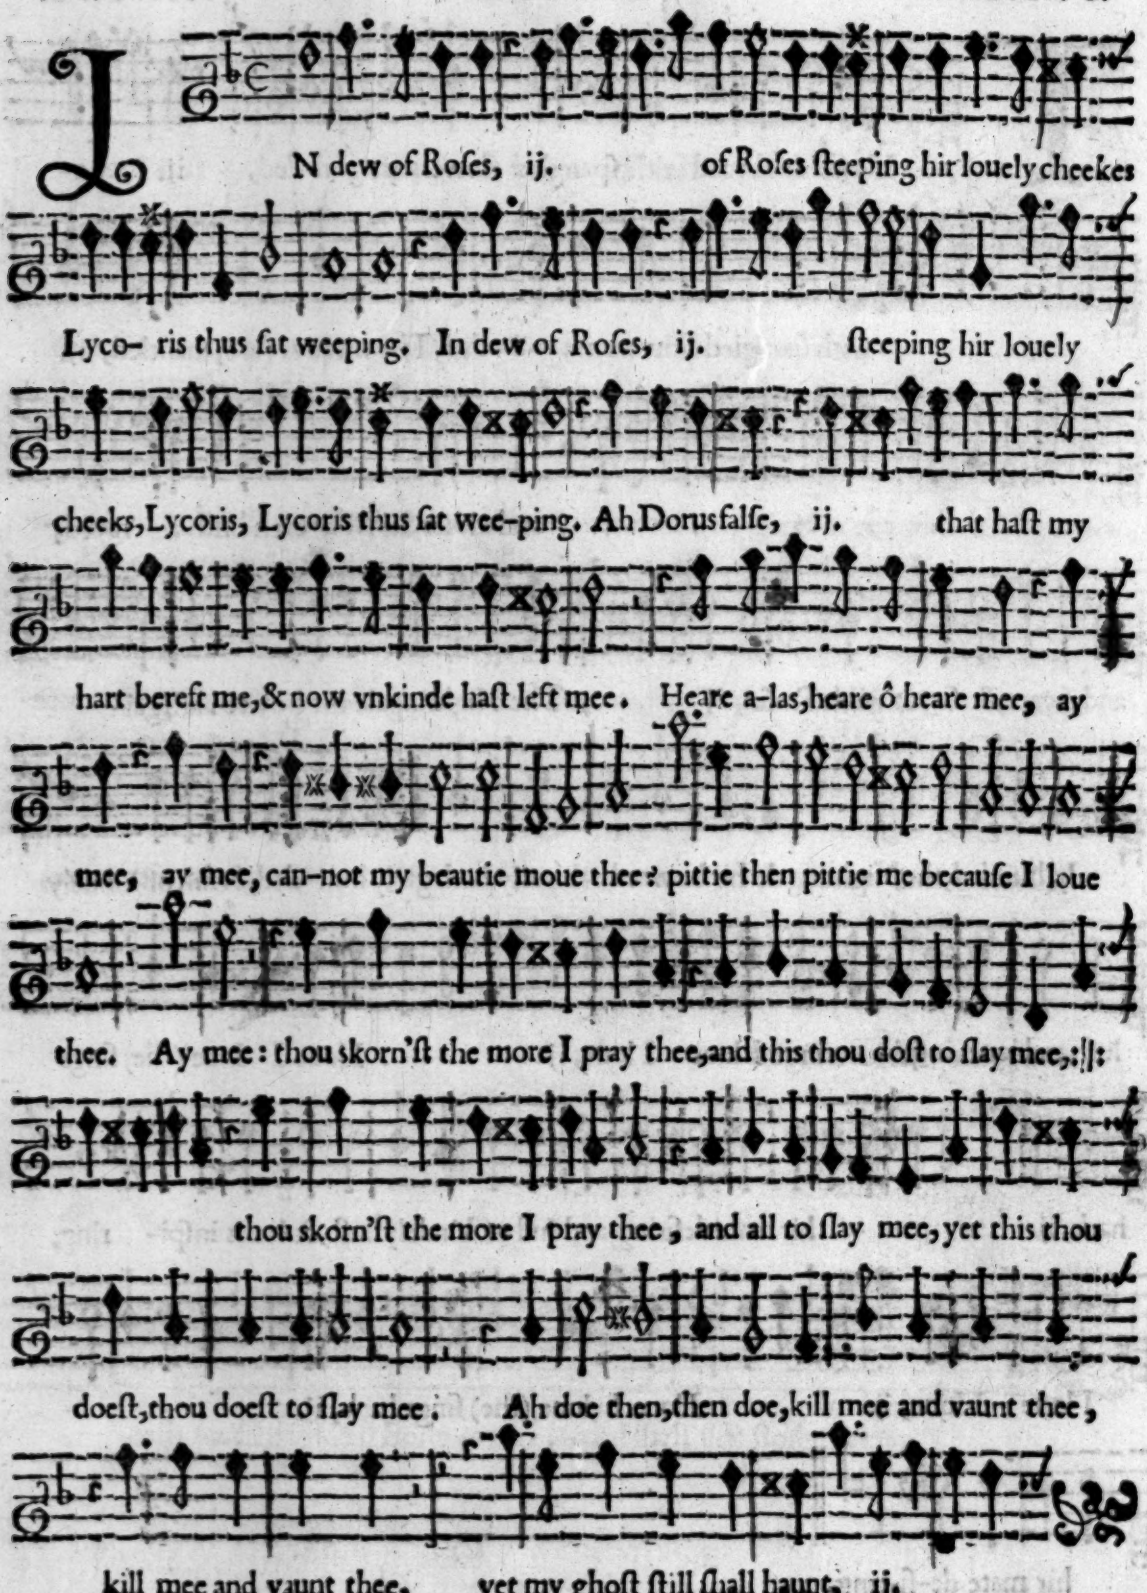
The ſecond part. VIII. CANTVS.





IN dew of Roſes, ij. of Roſes ſteeping hir louely cheekes Lyco- ris thus ſat weeping. In dew of Roſes, ij. ſteeping hir louely cheeks, Lycoris, Lycoris thus ſat wee-ping. Ah Dorus falſe, ij. that haſt my hart bereſt me, & now vnkinde haſt left mee. Heare a-las, heare ô heare mee, ay mee, ay mee, can-not my beautie moue thee? pittie then pittie me becauſe I loue thee. Ay mee: thou skorn'ſt the more I pray thee, and this thou doſt to ſlay mee, :||: thou skorn'ſt the more I pray thee, and all to ſlay mee, yet this thou doeſt, thou doeſt to ſlay mee. Ah doe then, then doe, kill mee and vaunt thee, kill mee and vaunt thee, yet my ghoſt ſtill ſhall haunt, ij.

X. CANTVS.

IN euery place, :||: false loue alas assailes mee, and griefe doth so torment, so torment mee, that how can ioy con- tent mee? when hope and faith and all no whit a-uailes mee? O gentle loue, O gentle, gentle loue, O gentle loue, O graunt mee lesse to grieue mee, Or grieue mee more, :||: Or grieue mee more, and griefe will soone relieue mee.

yet my ghost still shall haunt, yet my ghost still shall haunt thee.

Come Louers follow mee, ij. and leaue this weeping, follow mee, :‖: see where the Louelie little God, where the Louely God sweet- ly lies a sleeping, :‖: where the louely little God, where the louely God lies sleep- ing. Soft then: softly for feare wee wake him, :‖: softly for feare wee wake him, and to his bow hee take him, his bow hee take him. O then if hee but spie vs, if hee but spie vs, whether shall wee then flye vs; :‖: shall wee flie vs? And if hee come, :‖: and if hee come vpon vs, Out well away, out well a-way, then are wee woe beegon vs. Hence then a-way follow mee, a-way beegon follow me, diſpatch vs, hence thē away follow me away beegon diſpatch vs, and that a pace, that a pace, for feare hee catch vs, and that a pace leaſt hee catch vs, & that a pace, ere hee wake, for feare hee catch vs.

XI. CANTVS.

O no no no no no thou doeſt but flout mee, thou doſt flout, thou doſt flout mee, thou doſt flout, thou doſt flout me, thou doſt but flout me. Fie away, ij. fie away, ij. fie away I ſay, nay thou canſt liue, canſt liue without me, yea thou canſt liue well without me, yea thou canſt liue without mee. Since for mee then you care not, you care not, ſpite me and ſpare not. O heauie par- ting; turne ô turne, turne ô turne and cure this ſmarting. Come then ô come with comfort, come then with comfort, come then ô come with comfort ô come with comfort com- fort pi- tie my crying, ô help a-las, ô help a-las, ô help a- las,for now I lie a dying.Come then ô come with com- fort,Come then ô come with comfort,com- fort, pittie my crying,O help a- las, ij. ij. help a- las,for now I lye a dy- ing.

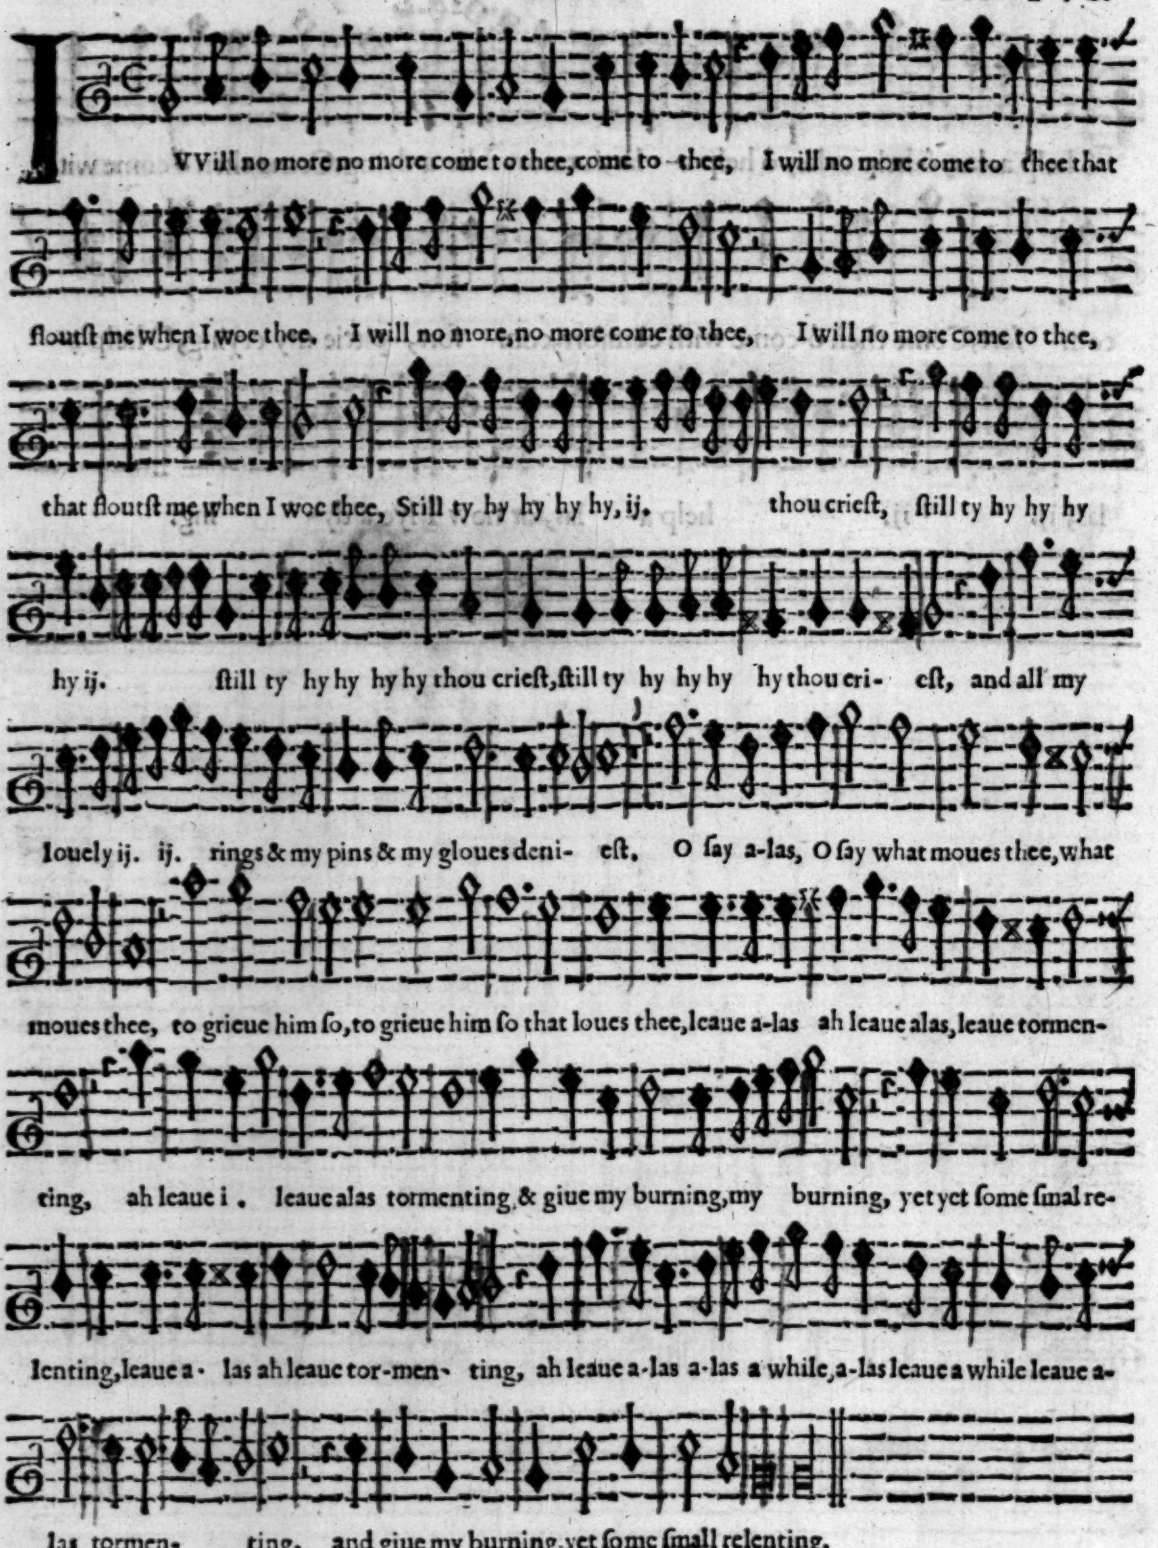
XIII. CANTVS.



I VVill no more no more come to thee, come to thee, I will no more come to thee that ſtoutſt me when I woe thee, I will no more, no more come to thee, I will no more come to thee, that ſtoutſt me when I woe thee, Still ty hy hy hy hy, ij, thou crieſt, ſtill ty hy hy hy hy ij. ſtill ty hy hy hy hy thou crieſt, ſtill ty hy hy hy hy thou cri- eſt, and all my louely ij. ij. rings & my pins & my gloues deni- eſt, O ſay a-las, O ſay what moues thee, what moues thee, to grieue him ſo, to grieue him ſo that loues thee, leaue a-las ah leaue alas, leaue tormenting, ah leaue i. leaue alas tormenting & giue my burning, my burning, yet yet ſome ſmal relenting, leaue a- las ah leaue tor-men- ting, ah leaue a-las a-las a while, a-las leaue a while leaue alas tormen- ting, and giue my burning, yet ſome ſmall relenting.

Beſides a fountaine, ij. of ſweet bri-er and roſes, heard I two louers talk in ſweet & wanton gloſes, Beſides a fountaine, ij. of ſweet brier & ro-ſes, heard I two louers (louing) talk theſe ſweet & wanton gloſes. Say dainty deere, quoth he, to whom, tel me dainty deere quoth he to whom, is thy liking ty- ed? To whom but thee my bonny loue, to whom but thee my bonny bonny ij. loue, my loue, the gentle Nimph re-pli-ed. I die, ij. ij. quoth he, ij. and I, and I, and I ſaid ſhe, Ah giue me then, ah giue me, giue me then quoth he but he durſt not ſay giue me ſome token, and with his hands the reſt he would haue ſpoken, Fie away, nay fie away cri'd the Nimph then, fie away, nay fie a-way then cri'd the Nimph (alas) you well doe know it: Ah quoth he ſweetly come kiſſe me then, ij. ſweetly kiſſe mee and ſhew it.

Sport we, Sport we my louely treasure, ij. ij. my louely treasure, ij. For why, long loue long seruing, ij. Asketh equall de- seruing, deser-uing, Asketh equall de-ser- uing, de- seruing, deseruing, Asketh equall equall de- ser- uing, Let be our sportfull pleasure, ij.

Let be our sportfull plea- sure, plea-sure, let be our sportfull pleasure, our sportfull p leasure. To kisse to kisse, ij. ij. to kisse the while we may now, ij.

And that you wot well what loues other token, Ioy more then can be spoken. ij. Ioy more then can be spo- ken, Ioy more then can bee spoken, bee spoken.

O Sweet alas, :|: :||: what say you, O sweet alas, :||:
:||: what say you, O sweet alas, :|| :||: what say you, ay mee, ay me, that face, ay me, that face, that face discloses, The Scarlet blush, of sweet vermillian Roses, & yet alas, and yet a- las I know not, If such a crimse stay-ning, bee for loue, bee for loue or disdaining, but if of loue it grow not, :||:
:||: :||: bee it disdaine con- ceiued, to see vs of loues fruits so long, so long bereued, but if of loue it grow not, :||:
:||: but if of loue, but if of loue &c. Bee it disdaine conceiued, to see vs of loues fruits so long beere- ued. so long bee- re- ued.

Oe who comes heere all along with bagpiping & drũ-ming with bagpiping & drumming? O the Morris tis I ſee, tis the Morris, :||: dauce a comming, Hoe who comes heer, all along with bagpiping & drumming? :||: O the Morris tis I ſee, tis the Morris

:||: daunce a comming. Come Ladies, come, come quickly, :||:

come away come I ſay, ô come, come quickly, and ſee a bout how trim, how trim they daunce and trickly, and ſee about how trim they daunce and trickly.

Hey there againe, hey ho there againe, hey ho how the bells they ſhake it? now for our towne, hey ho, now for our towne there & take it: now for our town hey ho, now for our town & take it. Soft a while not away ſo faſt they melt them. Piper ! Piper !

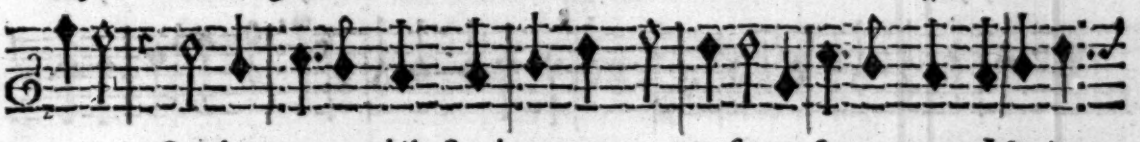
Piper ! Bee hang'd a while knaue, looke, the dauncers ſwelt them, :||:



Out there, out a while, ſtand out you come to far, to far you come I ſay in :

there giue the hobbie horſe more rome for to play in, there giue the hobbie horſe more rome to play in, more rome to play in.

Hark iolly ſhepheards hark: hark you you luſty ringing! hark (a-las) hark how cheerfully ẏ bels dauce hark how cheerfully the bels, how cheerfully the bels daunce, the while you lads are ſpringing, gow then, why ſit we heer delaying, ſit we heer thus delaying, why ſit wee delaying, why thē ſit we delaying, and all you merry, ij. ij. wanton laſſes play- ing, & all you merry merry lads, & merry merry wanton laſſes wanton laſſes playing, and all you merry merry lads, merry lads, lads and laſſes playing.
How gay-ly Flora leads it, and ſweetly treads it, the woods and groues they ring, they ring, lowdly reſounding, with Eccho ſweet re- bounding, the wods & groues they ring, they ring, lowdly reſounding, with Eccho ſweet rebounding.

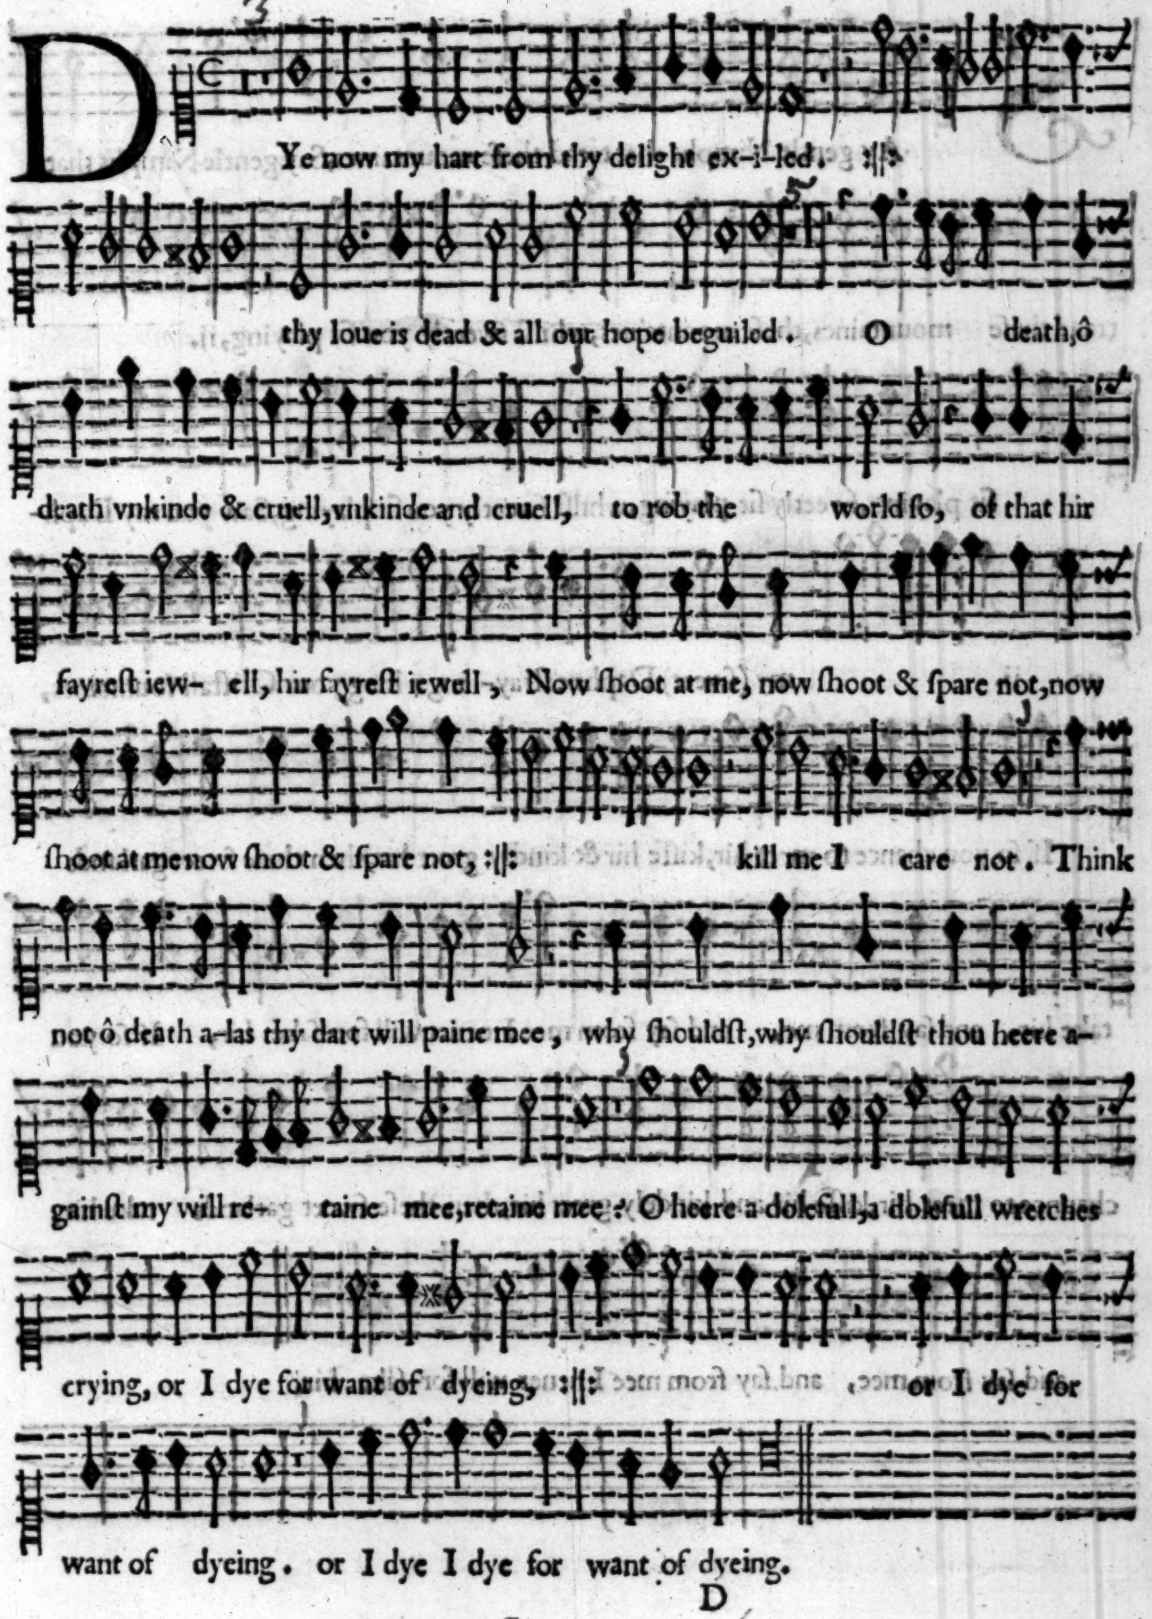
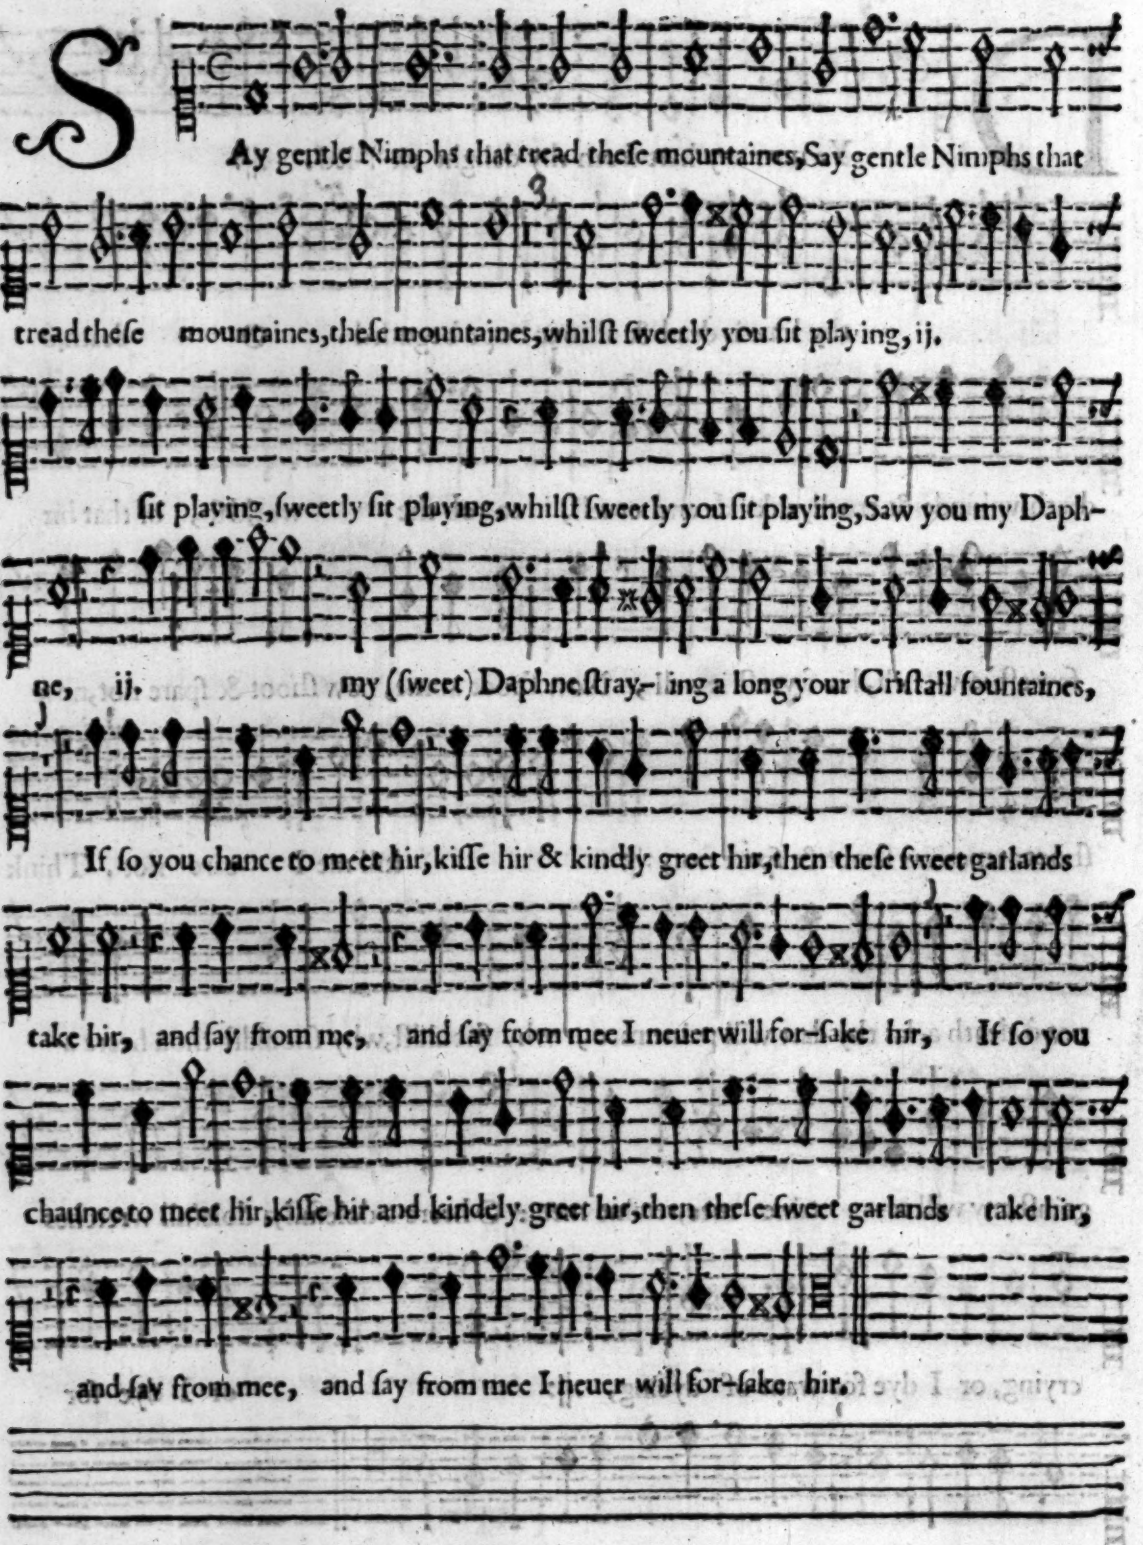
XIX. CANTVS.





Say gentle Nimphs that tread theſe mountaines, Say gentle Nimphs that tread theſe mountaines, theſe mountaines, whilſt ſweetly you ſit playing, ij. ſit playing, ſweetly ſit playing, whilſt ſweetly you ſit playing, Saw you my Daphne, ij. my (ſweet) Daphne ſtray-ing a long your Criſtall fountaines, If ſo you chance to meet hir, kiſſe hir & kindly greet hir, then theſe ſweet garlands take hir, and ſay from me, and ſay from mee I neuer will for-ſake hir, If ſo you chaunce to meet hir, kiſſe hir and kindely greet hir, then theſe ſweet garlands take hir, and ſay from mee, and ſay from mee I neuer will for-ſake hir.

Ound, roũd, roũd, a round a round about a wood as I walkt, late in the euening, in the euening, so faire so fresh & gay, Vnder a hathorne tree I heard a pretty maide that talkt, a pretty pretty pretty pretty merry, merry, maide that long before had walkt, Hey ho trolly lo trolly lol-ly lolly, lolly, hey ho trolly lo heauy hart quoth she, ij. my louely louely louer, hath disdained me hath dis-dayned mee my louely louely louer, hath disdained mee, hath dis-dained mee.

ON a faire, a faire, a faire morning, as I came by the way, met I with a merry, merry maide, ij. in the merry month of May
:||: When a fweet, a fweet loue fings, his louely, louely, louely fay, and euerie bird vpon the buſh becherps it vp ſo gay, with an heaue & ho, with heaue, an heaue and ho, with an heaue and ho, :||: with an heaue, an heaue an ho, with an heaue & ho, with an heaue, an heaue & ho, with an heaue an ho, thy wife ſhall be thy maſter I trow, :||: Sing care away, care away, let the world goe, Hey luſte-ly, luſte-ly all in a row, in a row all in a row, ſing care a-way, care away let the world goe.

Why sit : O this this mirth contenteth, whom grief of minde tormenteth, tormenteth, Ah cease this wee- ping, cease a-las, a-las this weeping, foole alas, foole a-las she does but this to proue thee; A-way a- way a- way a-way false comfort, false comfort, thou canst not moue mee, thou canst, thou canst not moue mee, ij. thou canst not moue mee . You that saw to much, to much mine eies, shal deerly, shall deerly buy it, that made my hart espie it. Hence false comfort in vaine thou dost ease me, comfort in vaine thou seekst to ease mee ; away I say then , a-way thou canst not please mee . thou canst not please mee , a- way I say, thou canst not please mee.

Elp I fall, my hope lo doth betray mee, O help I fall, Lady I fall, but you voutſafe to ſlay mee. Help I fall, I fall, my hope loe doth betray mee, O help I fall Ladie I fall but you vouchſafe to ſlay mee. See a Nymph vnkinde and cruell, ij. vnkinde and cruell, ij. a Nymph vnkinde and cruell, and cruell, to ſcorne hir onely Iuell. See a Nymph vnkinde and cruell, ij. vnkinde and

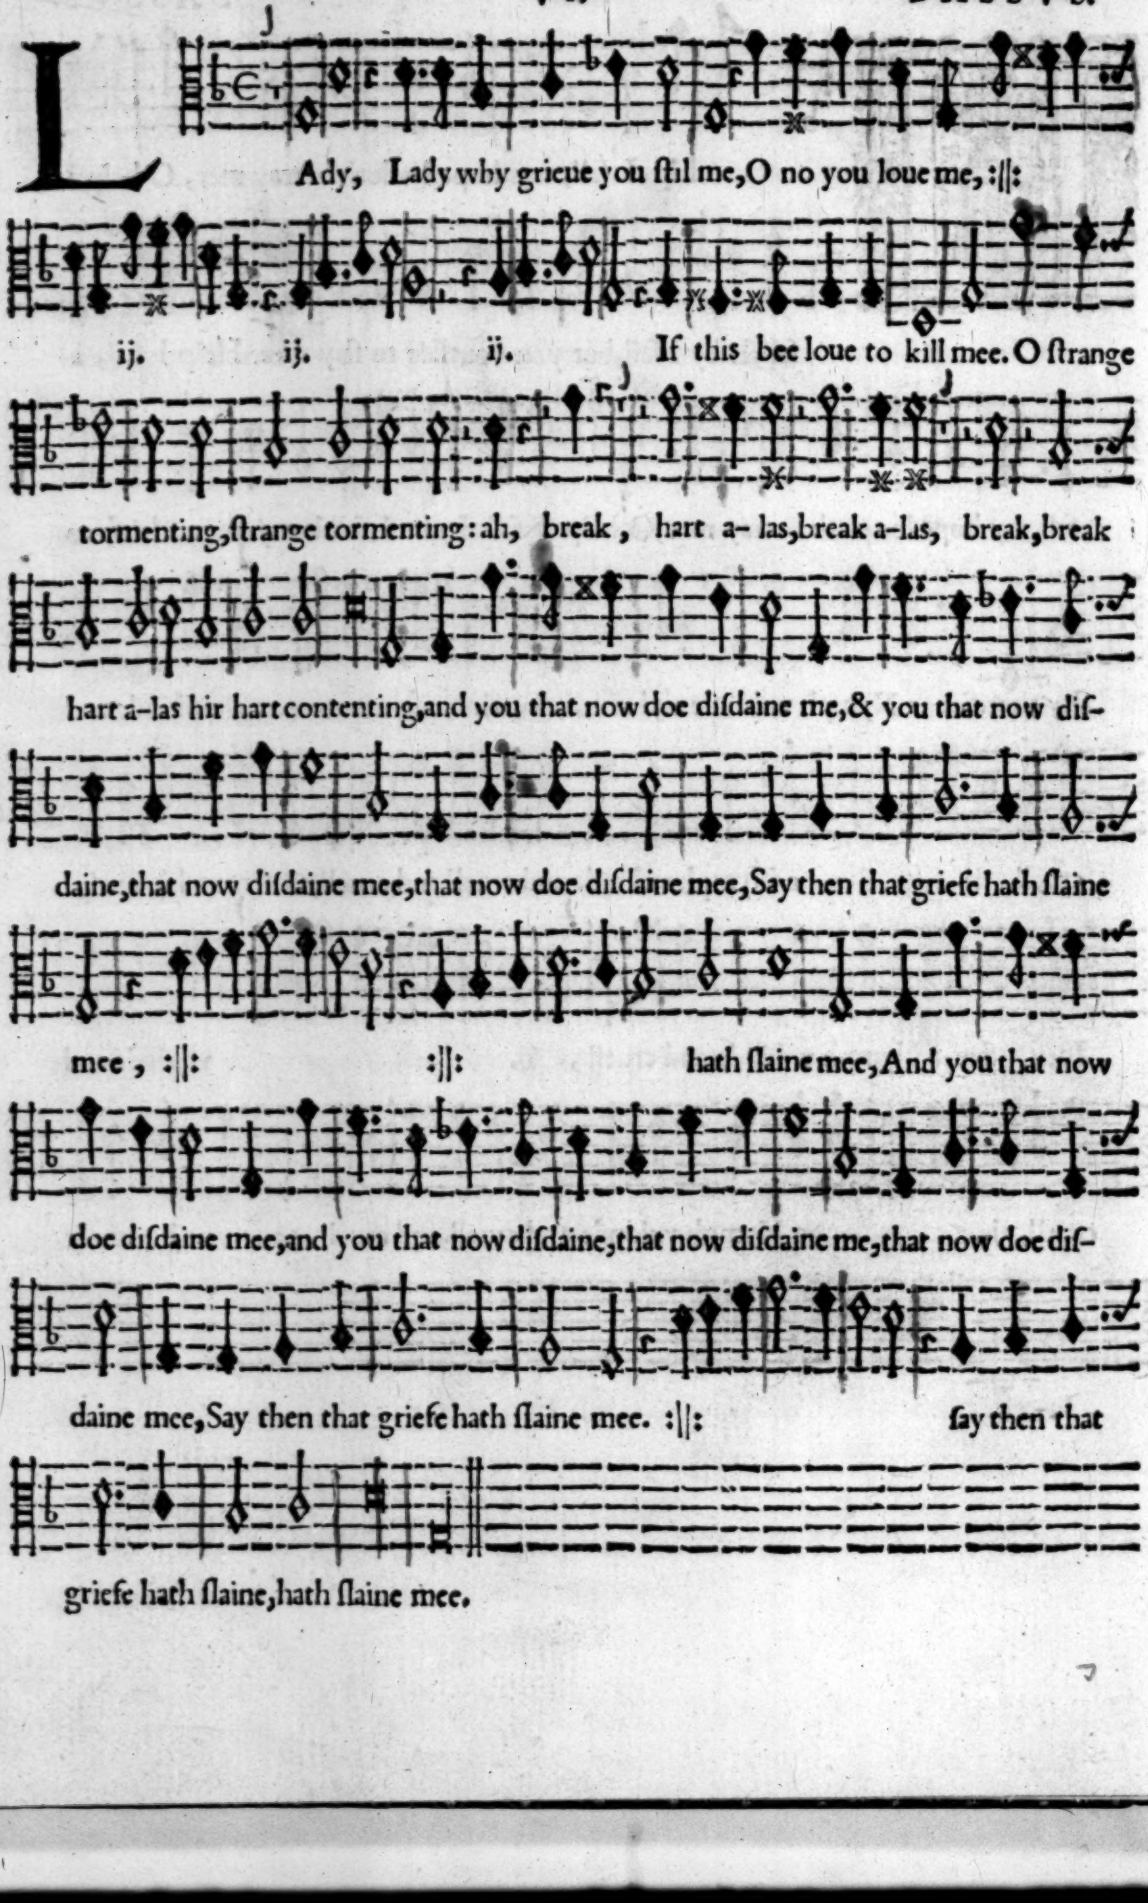
Iu- ell.



LAdy, Lady why grieue you ſtil me, O no you loue me, :||:
ij. ij. ij. If this bee loue to kill mee. O ſtrange tormenting, ſtrange tormenting: ah, break, hart a- las, break a-las, break, break hart a-las hir hart contenting, and you that now doe diſdaine me, & you that now diſ-daine, that now diſdaine mee, that now doe diſdaine mee, Say then that griefe hath ſlaine mee, :||: :||: hath ſlaine mee, And you that now doe diſdaine mee, and you that now diſdaine, that now diſdaine me, that now doe diſ-daine mee, Say then that griefe hath ſlaine mee. :||: ſay then that griefe hath ſlaine, hath ſlaine mee.

Now is the gentle ſeaſon freſhly flowring, to ſing and play & daunce while May endu- reth, to ſing & play and daunce while May endureth, and wooe & wed (toe) ij. and wooe and wed (toe) and wed (toe) and woe & wed that ſweet delight procureth.

THe fields abroad with ſpangled flowers, The fields abroad with ſpangled flowers are guilded, The meades (are) mantled, ij. ij. and cloſes, In May each buſh arayed, & ſweet wilde Roſes, and ſweet wilde Roſes, The Nightingale hir bowre hath gai- ly, hath gaily builded, & loues inſpi- ring: I loue I loue, ij. I loue I loue (ſhe) ſings hark, ij. hir mate de-ſiring; and loues inſpi- ring, I loue I loue, ij. I loue I loue (ſhe) ſings hark, ij. hir mate de-ſiring.

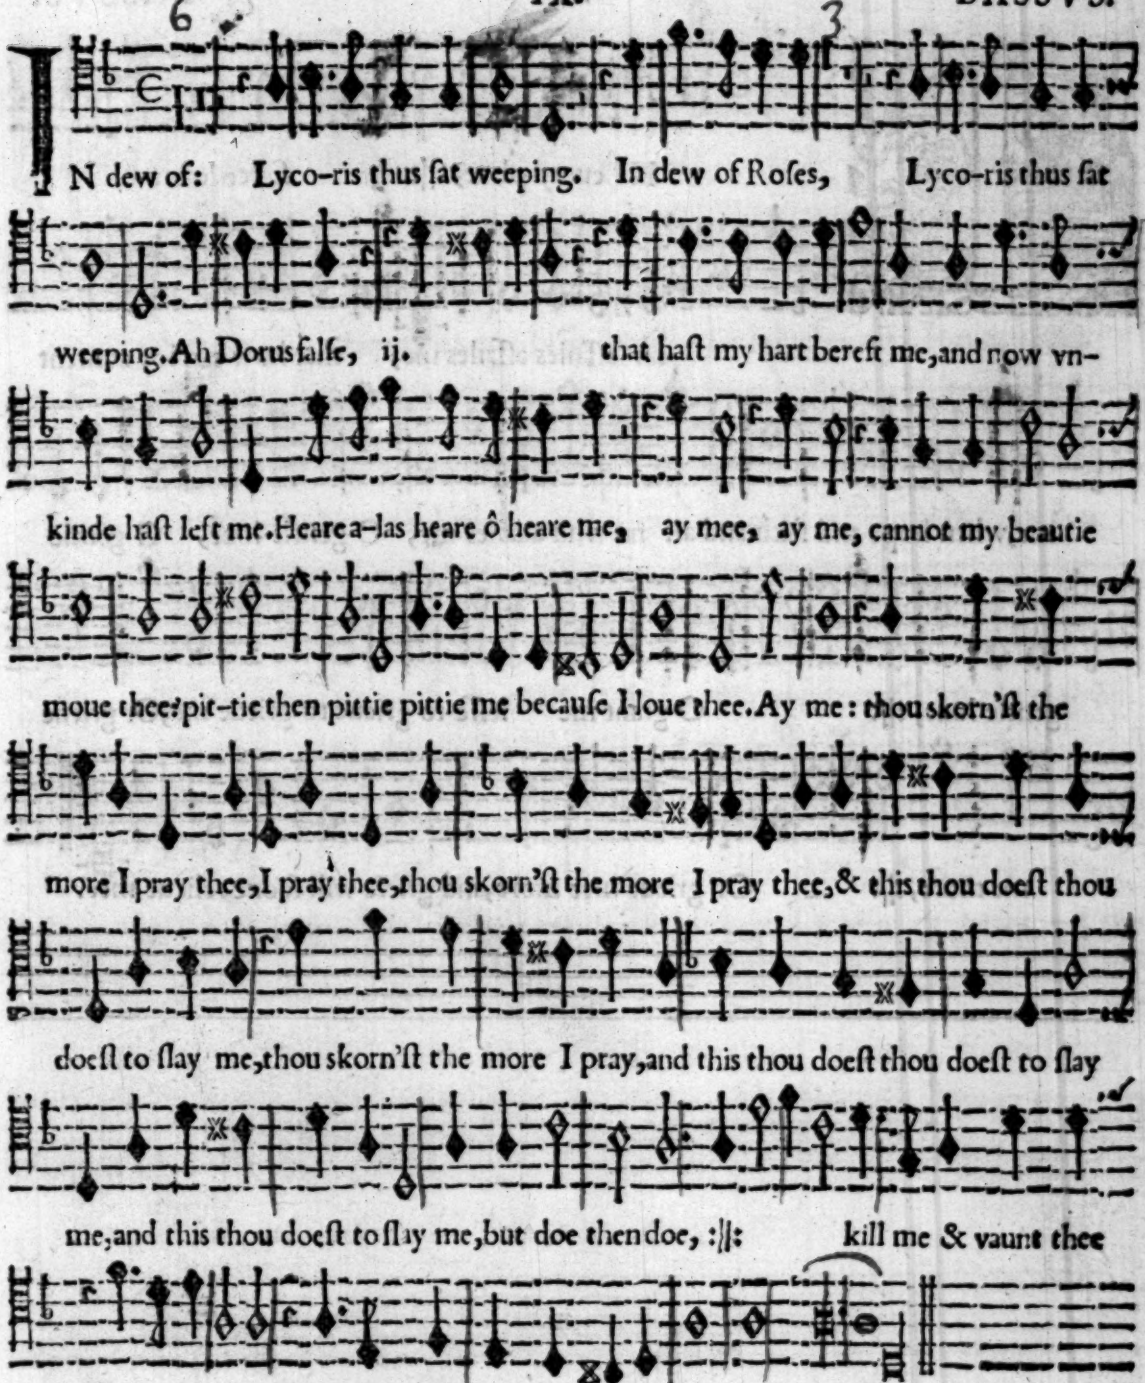
IX. BASSVS.



IN dew of: Lyco-ris thus ſat weeping. In dew of Roſes, Lyco-ris thus ſat weeping. Ah Dorus falſe, ij. that haſt my hart bereft me, and now vnkinde haſt left me. Heare a-las heare ô heare me, ay mee, ay me, cannot my beautie moue thee? pit-tie then pittie pittie me becauſe I loue thee. Ay me: thou skorn'ſt the more I pray thee, I pray thee, thou skorn'ſt the more I pray thee, & this thou doeſt thou doeſt to ſlay me, thou skorn'ſt the more I pray, and this thou doeſt thou doeſt to ſlay me, and this thou doeſt to ſlay me, but doe then doe, :||: kill me & vaunt thee
:||: yet my ghoſt ſtill ſhall haunt thee, ſhall haunt thee.

IN euery place, :||: fierce loue alas assailes assailes me, that how can ioy content me, when hope and faith and all no whit auailes me, O gentle loue, O gentle gentle loue, :||: O grant me lesse to grieue to grieue me, Or grieue me more, :||: Or grieue mee more, and griefe will soone relieue mee.

XI. BASSVS.

Come Louers : Soft then, soft-ly for feare wee wake him, wee wake him, and to his bow hee take him, & to his bow his bow hee take him : whether ſhall we then flye vs? ſhall we then flye vs, ſhall wee then flie vs ? And if hee come vpon vs, Out well a-way, out well a-way, a-way, then are wee woe begon, begon vs. Hence then away follow mee, a-way beegon, hence and diſpatch vs, and that a pace, that a pace, for feare, for feare hee catch vs.

NO no no no no thou doſt but flout mee, thou doſt flout, thou doſt flout mee, thou doſt but flout, but flout mee: Fie a-way, fie a-way I ſay away I ſay nay thou, nay thou, nay thou canſt liue without mee, thou canſt liue wel without mee, yea thou canſt liue canſt liue without mee, Since for me then you care not, ſince for me then you care not, ſpite me & ſpare not. O heauie parting.
Turne ô turne, turne ô turne and cure this ſmarting. Come then ô come with comfort, pi-tie my cry-ing. Help a-las, help for now I lye a dying.
Come then, ô come with comfort, come then ô come with comfort pi-tie my crying, Help a-las, help for now I lye a dye-ing.

I will no more no more come to thee, that floutſt me when I woe thee.
I will no more no more come to thee, that floutſt mee when I woe thee.
Still ty hy hy hy hy thou cryeſt, ſtill ty hy hy hy hy, ty hy hy thou cryeſt, and all my louely rings and my pins and my gloues denyeſt. O ſay alas, then ô ſay a-las what moues thee, to grieue him ſo that loues thee, Leaue a-las leaue then ah leaue tormenting, ah leaue, ah leaue then leaue a while a- las ah leaue tormenting, and giue my burning yet yet ſome ſmall re- len-ting. Leaue a-las leaue, then ah leaue tormenting, ah leaue, ah leaue thē, leaue a while alas, ah leaue tormenting, and giue my burning, yet yet ſome ſmall re- lenting.

Beſides a fountaine, heard I two louers talke in ſweet and wanton gloſes. Beſides a fountaine, heard I two louers talke in ſweet & wanton gloſes. Say daintie deere quoth hee, to whom is thy lyking ty-ed? To whom but thee my bonny loue, my loue the gentle Nimph replyed? I die, I die, I die quoth hee? and I and I and I ſaid ſhee: Ah giue me, giue me thē quoth hee (but durſt not ſay) :||: ſome token, and with his hands the reſt hee would haue ſpoken. Fie away, nay fie away ſhee cryed then: Fie away, nay fie away then cry'd the Nimph, nay fie, a-las, you well do know it, quoth he ſweetly come kiſſe mee then and ſhew it.

Sport we, ij. Sport we my louely treasure, ij.
Sport we my louely louely treasure, For why, long loue long seruing, Asketh equall de- seruing, ij. Let be our sportfull pleasure, ij.
ij. our sportfull pleasure, ij. To kisse to kisse, ij. now, To kisse to kisse, to kisse the while we may now, ij. we may now, And that you wot well what loues other token, Ioy more then can be spoken. Ioy more then can be spoken, Ioy more then can bee spoken, bee spoken.

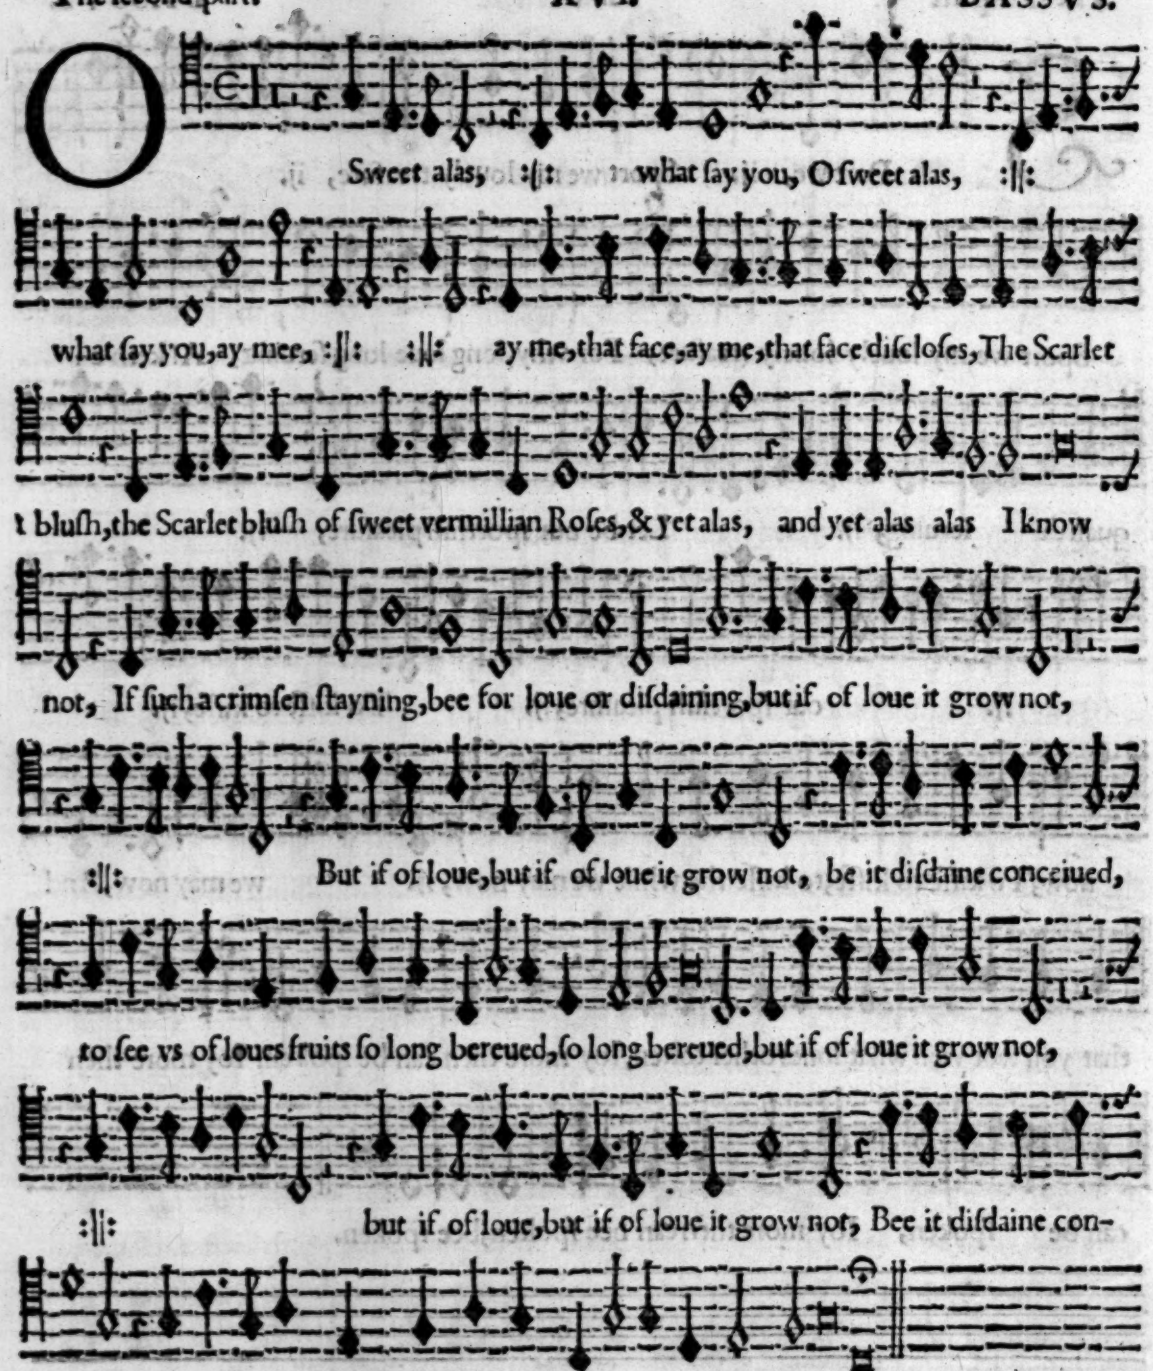
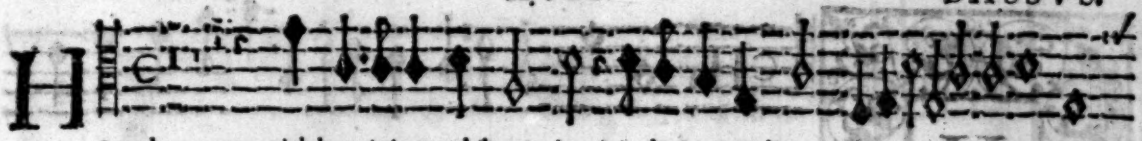
The ſecond part. XVI. BASSVS.





HOe who comes: with bagpiping and drumming, tis the Morris daunce, ij. a comming with bagpiping & drumming: tis the Morris daunce ij. a comming. Come come Ladies, come Ladies out, come quickly, come Ladies out, come ye Ladies out, come ladies out, O come, come quickly, & see how trim they daunce trimly & trickly, and see about how trim they dance how trim and trickly. Hey there againe, hey ho there againe againe, hey there againe there againe, againe, againe, how the bels they shake, hey they shake it? now for our towne, ij. hey, ij.

once more & take it. Soft a while not away so fast they melt them. What Pi-per ho! be hang'd a while knaue then, seest thou not, ij. the dauncers how they swelt them, the dauncers swelt them.

Out there, out a while stand out there, fie you come to far I say in: there, giue the hobby horse more roome, more roome to play in, more roomt to play in.

HArk Iolly: Goe then, why ſit we heer delaying? ſit we heer thus delay- ing, Goe then why ſit wee heere de- lay-ing, ſit we delaying, and all you merry wanton laſſes playing, and all you merry merry wanton wanton laſſes playing, and all you merry merry wanton laſſes wanton laſſes playing? How gavly Flora leads it, & how ſhe ſweetly treads it, the woods & groues they ring, lowdly reſounding, lowdly reſounding, with Eccho bounding, the woods and groues they ring, lowd-ly reſounding, lowdly reſounding, with Eccho ſweet rebounding.

Ye now my hart, exi- led. dye now my hart from thy delight, delight exiled, thy loue is dead and all our hope bee-guiled our hope beguiled.

O death,ô death vnkinde & cruell,to rob the world ſo, of that hir fayreſt iewell, hir fayreſt iewell, Now ſhoot at me now ſhoot & ſpare not, now ſhoot at mee now ſhoot and ſpare not, ij. kill mee I care not, O thinck not death a-las thy dart will paine mee, thinck not thy dart will paine mee, why ſhouldſt, why ſhouldſt thou heere againſt my will retaine me? O heere a dolefull, a dolefull wretches crying, or I dye for want of dying, or I dye for want, I dye for want of dyeing, or I dye, I dye for want of dyeing.

SAY gentle Nimphs that tread these mountaines, :||:
whilst sweetly you sit playing, sit playing, whilst sweetlie, sweetlie you sit playing, sweetlie sit playing, whilst sweetlie you sit playing, Saw you my Daphne, :||:
:||: straying along your Crisstall fountaines? If so you chaunce to meete hir, kisse hir and kindlie greete hir, and greete hir, then these sweet Garlands take hir, and say from mee, and say from mee I neuer will forsake hir, If so you chance to meete hir, kisse hir and kindlie greet hir, and greet hir, then these sweet garlands take hir, and say from mee, and say from mee I neuer will forsake hir.

Round, round, round a roũd, a roũd about a wood as I walkt, roũd, roũd roũd a roũd a roũd about a wood as I walkt, roũd about a wood as I walkt, late in the euening ſo faire, ſo faire, ſo freſh & gay, vnder a hathorne tree, I heard a prettie maide that talkt, a prettie, prettie merrie maide that long before had walkt, :||: Hey ho tro-lo-ly lo-ly lo, hey ho tro-lo-ly, hey ho tro-lo-ly lo, troly lol-ly lol-ly lol-ly, hey ho tro-ly-lo heauie hart quoth ſhe, my louely louely louer, my louely loue-ly louer, :||: hath diſdained mee, :||: hath diſdayned mee, :||: my louelie louelie louer, my louelie louelie louer, my louelie loue-lie louer hath diſdained mee. :||: :||: :||:

ON a faire, a faire, a faire morning, as I came by the way, met I with a merry, merry maide, ij. merry maide, in the merry month of May, in &c. When a ſweet, a ſweet, a ſweet loue ſings his louely, louely lay, and euerie bird vpon the buſh becherps it vp ſo gay, with an heaue, an heaue, an heaue, an heaue & ho, :||: with an heaue & ho, with an heaue, an heaue, & ho, with an heaue & ho, :||: thy wife ſhall be thy maſter I trow, :||: ſing care away, care away let the world goe, ſing care away, care away let the world goe. Hey luſte-ly, luſte-ly all in a row, all in a row, ſing care a-way let the world gee.
